WAS ALMOST DISCOURAGED

Constant Headache and Much Soreness and Pain Nearly Got the Best of This Harrisburg Lady, But Cardui Made Her Well and Strong.

Harrisburg, Ark.—Mrs. J. M. Needham, living near here, states: "When I began working on me I suffered a great deal. I had so much soreness and pain in the lower part of my body I could hardly get up when I was down. I would have severe pains, all across my back, and my sides hurt me all the time. I would have headaches constantly, especially the back of my head and neck. I was almost discouraged with my condition when I thought of Cardui, and decided to see what it would do.

I saw an improvement at once after the first bottle. I kept it up and the result was wonderful. I took altogether four bottles. I grew stronger, better appetite, less pain until I was well. I think Cardui is a God-send to suffering women, and I certainly can praise it, and do so."

For more than 40 years Cardui has been in general use and in that time thousands have written to tell us how it helped them back to health and strength.

NEW GOVERNOR TO TAKE OFFICE IN MISSISSIPPI

Lee M. Russell Will Take Over Reins of Government at Noon Tuesday—Gov. Bilbo Retires to Poplarville Home.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 19. (Sp.)—Gov. Theodore G. Bilbo, "the attorney general of Mississippi politics," and the most widely discussed man who has held that office in many years, retires from the gubernatorial chair at the noon hour Tuesday, and will be succeeded by Lee M. Russell, of Oxford, the lieutenant-governor of the Bilbo administration.

All arrangements have been completed for the change of administration. The inaugural program, while not so elaborate as that of former years, is expected to attract a large number of visitors to the capital, chiefly friends and admirers of the incoming governor.

All indications point to fair weather, in which event the oath of office will be administered to the new governor in front of the capitol building, after which he will deliver an inaugural address about one hour in length. Should the weather be inclement the ceremony will take place in the hall of the lower house of the legislature, before a joint session of the house and senate. Chief Justice Sydney M. Smith will administer the oath.

For the first time in history the entire legislative body will take part in the inaugural parade, instead of awaiting the coming of the new governor at the capitol building. Automobiles sufficient in number for the legislative contingent have been provided by the committee on arrangements representing the various civic and commercial bodies of Jackson. The program proper is in charge of a joint legislative committee.

The military section of the parade will be much smaller than at former inaugurations, owing to the fact that the national guard has not been reorganized. It will consist of two cadet battalions and a band from the A. and M. college.

Numerous social functions have been planned, the most notable being the inaugural ball to take place at the Edgewood hotel Tuesday night. Governor-elect and Mrs. Russell have also planned a series of receptions at the executive mansion.

Finally looking back saw smoke coming from the house and immediately made his way back to rescue the baby, but on reaching the house found the helpless little babe literally roasted by the flames. STATE OFFICERS GO IN IN MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 19. (Sp.)—Mississippi's new state officers who are to serve for the next four years, with the exception of the governor, went into office at the noon hour today.

The change of administration was devoid of formal ceremony. In fact, there were only a few changes at the two judicial buildings, a large majority of the old state officers having been re-elected for four-year terms, and they merely went through the ceremony of again taking the oath and filing new official bonds.

There was a brief ceremony in the senate when Lieut.-Gov. H. H. Castled, of Holmes county, took the oath and assumed the gavel as presiding officer of the senate, succeeding Lieut.-Gov. L. M. Russell, who, on Tuesday, becomes governor of the commonwealth for a four-year term.

The state officers who took the oath today are as follows: Lieutenant-governor, H. H. Castled; attorney-general, Frank Robertson; secretary of state, Joseph W. Power; auditor, W. J. Miller; insurance commissioner, T. M. Henry; treasurer, Dr. L. S. Rogers; clerk of supreme court, W. J. Buck; land commissioner, M. A. Brown; prison trustees, W. A. Montgomery, J. P. Thomas and L. Q. Stone; railroad commissioners, George R. Edwards, W. R. Wilson and C. N. Morgan; state librarian, Mrs. W. F. Marshall; revenue agent, Stokes W. Robertson; superintendent of education, Prof. W. F. Bond; commissioner of agriculture, P. P. Gardner.

Except in the office of attorney-general, treasurer and auditor, there will be very few changes in the list of assistants and employees in the various departments of state government. All of the officers who were re-elected will retain their present offices.

BANK EXAMINER QUILTS.

NEWBERN, Tenn., Jan. 19. (Sp.)—Homer W. Scott, a well-known Lenoir county boy of the Churchtown community, has resigned his position as state bank examiner, and has accepted the position as cashier of his home town bank at Union City, Tenn.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calomel, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nauseless calomel tablet called Calomel, and which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old-style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way toward preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calomel on the tongue at bedtime, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calomels only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful. adv.
